

2015 SPECIAL ONE-DAY CONFERENCE

on

The Philosophy of Richard Swinburne

to be held in

Oriel College, University of Oxford,

on

Saturday 12th September, 2015, from 9:00 a.m. until 9.45 p.m.

The main speakers will be Christoph Jaeger (Innsbruck), Brian Leftow (Oxford), Cyrille Michon (Nantes), Howard Robinson (Central European University), and Mark Wynn (Leeds). Richard Swinburne will offer replies.

In addition to the papers given by these speakers on aspects of Richard's Philosophy, there will be a series of presentations throughout the day on the use of Richard's Philosophy in teaching the Philosophy of Religion to A-level students.

The conference has been timed to follow on directly from the usual biennial BSPR conference (<http://www.thebspr.org/conferences.html>), at which Richard himself will be presenting a paper of his own, and it is planned that there will be a combined booking form. Further details of both then will be circulated via the BSPR email list in due course. The secretary of the BSPR is Victoria Harrison (Victoria.harrison@glasgow.ac.uk). The conference organiser is Tim Mawson (tim.mawson@philosophy.ox.ac.uk). Please contact the secretary if you wish to be put on the email list or the organiser if you have any queries.
